

Who Am I?

Welcome to 6th grade Language Arts. I look forward to learning more about you. Write a 3 paragraph essay where you tell me all about you! Fill out the Fakebook profile to brainstorm your ideas. Then, use the information to write your essay.

You should have 4-5 sentences in each paragraph. You must write on binder paper— one side of the page only, holes on the left-hand side of the page, using your best handwriting. Use the guidelines below to help you. Spelling and punctuation DOES count.

Paragraph 1	Introduce yourself! Include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Name• Age• Siblings (if you have them)• Parents names• Pets• Where you were born
Paragraph 2	Tell me something about yourself that you would like me to know about you (sports you play, favorite hobbies, etc.) and explain why you want me to know this. What do you do when you are not in school? What kind of a person are you (traits)?
Paragraph 3	Tell me three goals you have for yourself this year in Language Arts— that is, three things you hope to achieve. How are you going to achieve these goals?

Essay is due: _____
